Through seven songs of rejoice
His name relives his solar voice

Falling into the unknown (falling)
Yet he shall feel no harm

Light shines upon his face
Night exists no longer

In unknown colours they confront him
In soundless tongue they.. they speak his name
Moonred - reaching for life through eternity
Starblack - the brooding silence - it frightens me
The brooding silence frightens me

One elderly custom in timeless guise
Ceremonies of old, one dove that flies
Fly through time
