"Move Trough Me"

Consume the curse
that brings you down
the fadin lair
who wakes up alone
it's there in front of you

invert this tragedy
to come
and reclaim your future
this is a call to arms
one quest at a time

feed the hunger
climb on up
respress the negative
you are not alone
it's there in front of you

this is a call to arms
one quest at a time

aviod the mould
desperate you regress
move trough me
I'll be your triumph

invert this tragedy
this is a call to arms
one quest at a time
