We are ordinary people, we all live different lives
In the end we're pretty much the same
We're just living in different lies

We just live in different lies
We just live in different lies

They scream, You scream, I scream
We scream, But no one listens

Abuse to feel superior
Is it working for you?

They scream, You scream, I scream
We scream

Abuse to feel superior
Is it working for you?

We are ordinary people
In a world built on stress
When we build walls around us
We end up in a mess

We end up in a mess
We just end up in a mess

They scream, You scream, I scream
We scream, But no one listens

Abuse to feel superior
Is it working for you?

They scream, You scream, I scream
We scream

Abuse to feel superior
Is it working for you?

We just live in different lies
We just live in different lies

They scream, You scream, I scream
We scream, But no one listens

Abuse to feel superior
Is it working for you?

They scream, You scream, I scream
We scream

Abuse to feel superior
Is it working for you?
