When all is said and done, we know what's right what's wrong

But does it matter then when all is said and done?
When all is said and done, we know who's left of one
But does it matter, then when all is dead and gone?

Seeing everything go, there's no more things alive
That we know
Shift your point of view, you be warned
There's a one way ticket for you

When all the lights go out, we know what that's about
But does it matter then when all the lights go out?
When all that's left is lies, there'll be nothing left to realize
But does it matter, do they know they left its lies

Seeing everything go, there's no more things alive
That we know
Shift your point of view, you be warned
There's a one way ticket for you

When all that's left is lies, we'll see nothing left to
But does it matter, do they know they left its lies

Seeing everything go, there's no more things alive
That we know
Shift your point of view, you be warned
There's a one way ticket for you
