Everyone around me
seems to be ageing by the day lines like war maps upon their faces where is our neverland?
where is our innocence?
for all i want to do is escape away with you to hear the blue birds call -blue birds call to see the blue snow fall
-blue snow fall
trudging through the blizzards singing home

running, screaming, laughing, dreaming
-never growing old we will spend our lives not losing but gaining with those we love
happy endings have never seemed so far we must make our wayhome!
our way home!
happy endings have never seemed so far
-happy endings
for beyond that lies paradise where we will never grow old running, screaming
laughing, dreaming
of our paradise
paradise
