

In Hearts Wake "The Last Endeavour"

Visit "The Last Endeavour" on MotoLyrics.com

Last night the storm an i, were caught between two seas lighting bleached the sky, thunder shook the glass the wind stripped everything, of its sullen moisture
i longed for the rain, that fresh sweet scented air to find new life-

sailing ever after the moon our guide sailing towards the sunset where had i drifted?

where was i lost?
or had i found?
onelast journey
of what this could be

we must make this last endeavour holding hands and thoughts together
-this, last, endeavour
leave behind the storm forever
-this last endeavour
to find your sun set

fill our sails with hope a drawing of a new day this will be our last pain!
