You think I'm living in the past
Living out something long gone
But what's so wrong with believing what made me who I am
That's why I won't give up
Your criticism won't get in the Way!
I'd rather say something that means a lot to me
Even if it's been said before
Will you stand by what I say?
This is our time
Will you speak out on what you feel?
This is our time
We'll look back on these days as the best times of our lives
Why can't they fucking last?
These memories will outlive
The maturity that you seek Losing touch in your adult world!
Growing older every week
When you think back to what you've lost
You might not even care
But I'll stay true to what I've said
Even if you're not tucking there..you're not fucking there!
There's no shame in having fun and staying young!
Still you put me down you think you're something better!
I can't turn my back and I don't think you'll be missed
Because I'm surrounded by friends
Who feel stronger than you ever did
Will you stand by what I say?
This is our time
Will you speak out on what you feel?
This is our time
This is our time
