i'll stand tall as i'm put through all these mistakes look down on you when no one seems to know the mind betrays, falling into my own I can't live with this, now I'm all alone fear and sorrow ripping me apart, as it brings me down i'll resist these attacks, as nothing holds me back a glance, a kiss, your knife, my wrist, cherish this for now

now i'm alone

your problems create problems, and your answers are my problems,
living unseen, with a voice only i can hear.
