Kiss your shadow
your shadow in the night arm just one more time for your last aimless fight I scream into the falling rain
words I'd lost,
but found again

but when the angel returns back into the sky
I will follow him even I have to die save the darkness let it never fade away take a seat on the moon watch the sun turns to grey

kiss your shadow
the shadow in my eyes
trust the outline an eye never lies
words I'd lost,

but when the angel returns back into the sky
