Before darkness
There was light
A prediction that dulls your sight
Everything seems beautiful and bright

A man sent
From heaven above
A shiny creature
Full of compassion and love

Prediction
Which is just a lie
Prediction
Hold your head up high
Prediction
Face the fear
Prediction
Get your purpose clear

Never trust false prophets like this
Who shine reality into a mess
Save your life until it's time
Never trust this transparent sign

Prediction
Which is just a lie
Prediction
Hold your head up high
Prediction
Face the fear
Prediction
Get your purpose clear

Never trust false prophets like this
Who shine reality into a mess
Save your life until it's time
Never trust this transparent sign
