Feel the things i do
I transfer my dreams to you
A journey through your mind
Logical explanations hard to find
Develop your own identity
To get back into reality
Feel your dreams come true
I will become a part of you
Chorus:
I wish you could get
The false of hate and regret
I wish you could see
The truth inside of me
Remember all the things you did
More strange feelings hard to hit
Frightening memories of a kind
Another journey through your mind
Can't you hold my hands,
Become much more like friends
I open up my arms for you
Just a tiny small thing to do
Chorus
