

In Tenebris "Sunrise"

Visit "Sunrise" on MotoLyrics.com

Memories fade silently
Losing continuity
It was never found in me
To comprehend eternity
Everything within your eyes
Limitless as the sunrise

Children take what we can see
We have only strength to breathe
There is one thing that I know
Far we've come and still to go

Everything I feel for you
Words cannot express it true
But to love is not the end
For in In Tenebris you I have found a friend
Everything within your eyes

Paint the world a new sunrise
Martyred by the world it seems
Chosen now to live our dreams
Place your every trust in me
And Ill give mine to destiny

With each and every breath we take
We feel the limit, watch it In Tenebris break
And all the hopes we should fulfill
With every step were closer still
And we shall reach the greatest height
From the darkness to the light
And all the world within our sight
From the darkness to the light
