I feel the sense beginning
The beginning through the end
There's nothing left to fear now
So watch me close
As one again you...

Burn me alive
Set me on fire
And watch me die
Burn me alive
Watch me burn to light right before your eyes

There's no reason to cry now
There's nothing to forgive
The suffering's my blessing
The death... is how I live
So

BURN me alive
Set me on fire
And watch me die
Burn me alive
Watch me burn to death right before your eyes

Set me on fire...
And watch me burn...
Set me on fire...
And watch me... BURN me alive
Set me on fire
And watch me die
BURN me alive
Watch me burn to death right before your eyes
