Walking in circles on a life line
Waiting for the right time
To try to bring myself to life
Get moving forward on a straight line
All the things in my mind
Are not that far Im catching up
Fashion is distraction when the crowd screams
All the fancy lights gleam
And your head starts getting large
But if your going to make the big scene
Make sure that youre still listening
Youve gotta make yourself take charge

Take charge of my life
Mold it how I wanna be
You think you know
But Ive got another side of me
Take charge of my life
Live it how I wanna be
I think I know
I can feel it inside of me

My head is filled with all these big dreams
Fantasy it may seem
Were gonna make it to the top
Determination through the local scene
Blowing up the mainstream
Were on a roll and you cant stop
Us bringing lyrics and a hard sound
Coming soon to your town
Our shit has not been rated yet
You best believe this is the prequel
Be looking for the sequel
Were giving more youve got to get

Take charge of my life
Mold it how I wanna be
You think you know
But Ive got another side of me
Take charge of my life
People coming up to me
Saying there it is

When I can see it in front of me

And Im reaching out
Trying to chase my dreams
And Im learning now
The stars are further than they seem
Feeling the pressure for a deadline
Running out of time
We gotta make this happen now
Keeping our minds off doing fat lines
Just bringing mad rhymes
The only question is when not how
Because up there you know its there time
Down here its our time
And Im taking my wishes back
So you better know when IN-RAGE
Gets the fuck up on the stage
Theres not a damn thing
That we lack

Take charge of my life
People coming up to me
Saying there it is
But I can feel it inside of me

And Im reaching out
And Im learning now
The stars are
Further

Everything inside my head
Is fucking up and I cant seem
To get myself out
Of this trap I cant believe
I let myself go fall for this
Charade of fashion
Everything inside my head
To get myself out
Charade of fashion

And Im reaching out
And Im learning now

The stars are further
Than they seem

And Im reaching out
And Im learning now
Than they
Seem
