(Jean-Paul Maunick / Dominic Oakenfull)

If you're willing to listen, I got a message for you
Gather everybody, together there's nothing we can't do

We must use love inspiration to elevate our minds
Spread the information to the corners of the world

Reach out
You'll be amazed what you find
When you reach out with your mind
Reach out
You're gonna find so much more
Won't you reach out and explore

If you are searching for something to lead you out of the dark
Light the inner fire, if you believe it will see you through

We must use love inspiration to elevate your mind

Spread the information to the corners of the world

Reach out
You'll be amazed what you find
When you reach out with your mind
Reach out
You're gonna find so much more
Won't you reach out and explore

We are one under the sun
