(Jean-Paul Maunick / Graham Harvey / Stephen Pert)
There were moments in my past
I couldn't tell right from wrong
Getting lost along the way in places I did not belong

I couldn't see a way to turn myself around so deep my confusion
Until the day you woke up my senses showed me happiness was not just an illusion

Since you came into my life
I've been caught in a world of ecstasy
For the first time in all my days
I feel like I'm walking on solid ground
Stay mine, stay mine

Getting by just on my own
Always been my intention
Now sitting here waiting by the phone
I realise how much I needed this emotion

Every time I get the chance I'm gonna let you know how you complete me
I put away all my defences all the love I got
I give to you completely

Since you came into my life
I've been caught in a world of ecstasy

For the first time in all my days
I feel like I'm walking on solid ground
Stay mine, stay mine, got to stay mine

Now you've got to know, you're the top of my list
One the one the one the one, my number one
There's no doubt in my mind, baby you're the one
One the one the one the one the one

Since you came into my life
I've been caught in a world of ecstasy
For the first time in all my days

I feel like I'm walking on solid ground

Ever since you came into my life
I've been caught in a world of ecstasy
For the first time in all my days
I feel like I'm walking on solid ground
Stay mine, stay mine, got to stay mine stay mine, sugar honey baby
One the one the one, my number one
One the one the one the one the one
