All things have meanin'
If we take the time, then we will see
Smoke means there's a fire
So we live and learn to understand

Recognisin' the danger
Throwin' out a lifeline if we're able, hey
Gather inspiration
Together in a harvest of the free

Get up, 'cos the time has come
You'd better believe, that it will be done
You can't make pretend it's and illusion

Get up 'cos the time has come
You better believe, that it will be done
The reason bein' life is not a dream

We're all witness
To the politics of life and survival
New day is commin'
Every woman, every man will be as one

Can't stop tryin' like a mother
To give her child a better life if she's able
Keep on fightin' yeah
Believin' every word, a song of freedom

Get up, 'cos the time has come
You'd better believe, that it will be done
You can't make pretend it's and illusion

Get up 'cos the time has come
You better believe, that it will be done
The reason bein' life is not a dream

Get up
Get up

Get up, the time has come
You'd better believe, that it will be done
You can't make pretend it's and illusion

Get up 'cos the time has come
You better believe, that it will be done
The reason bein' life is not a dream

Get up, 'cos the time has come
You'd better believe, that it will be done
You can't make pretend it's and illusion

Get up 'cos the time has come
You better believe, that it will be done
The reason bein' life is not a dream
