Hurting herself for an answer
A shade of an empty soul
I watch her go down from the altar
Walking, she's out of control

Tried to hold on, but she's falling
Lost in the shadows alone
Misled by voices, they're calling
Craving for someone to come

Afraid of the unknown
The feelings within
Taking her under

Crawlin' around
On the ground
Down on her knees in prayer

Trapped in a world of delusions
Inside the walls of her own
Trying to come to conclusions
When she comes undone

Afraid of the unknown
The feelings within
Taking her under

Crawlin' around
On the ground
Down on her knees in prayer
Wanderin' soul
Left alone
Now on her knees in despair
