Standing outside your door
Just to see you again
I feel helpless when I am here
As you are fading away

I am sorry for you
Can't believe that it's true
I'm aware of your pain
Oh, I wish you could stay

Find me
When you are dreaming
If you are sleeping
Would you wake up for me
Dying
Reaching for heaven
Send me an angel
Who can take you away from here

Sitting here by your side
As you're passing away
I would give anything
Just to see that you're walking again
