Oh light in time of darkness
When your eyes on mine fell
My heart on timeless waters drifted

Chorus:

I want to know you
I want to know you
I want to know you well

Oh strength in time of trouble
Pray your nature tell
Oh beautiful and shining one

Chorus:

Oh timeless closeness springing
Between our paths in time
Oh crystal bell of truth ringing

Chorus:

Oh formless bliss come flying
On wings of laughter free
Oh road of beauty crying

Chorus:

Brother all I know is I am
I know not yet who I am
But a bright star took my right hand
Led me to this strange and far land
Oh new star touch with your silver breath my light
Then you may know who I am

Brother the sun shines on our path
Flowers grow and birds sing on our path
Come to me love take my right hand
Together to walk in this far land
Oh new star touch with your silver breath my light
Then you may know who I am

Glad To See You

I'm glad, glad to see you
So glad, glad to see you
It must feel good to be you
And it feels good to be me
When you're glad to see me
