Everybody knows good times
Everybody knows tears that fall
You and me had something higher than just good times
Something else that I just can't find without you

Without you got emptiness
Without you I've got an emptiness
That is lower
Than just about anything at all

Pick up
Let me pick up
Let me pick up on your lovelight
Please let it shine on me
I want that more
Than just about anything at all

Little girl I love you
Spend my walking hours in thoughts or you
You held your love light high
And it shone
And it shone down on me
But you let it fall so low I could not see

Without you got emptiness
Without you I've got an emptiness
That is lower
Than just about anything at all
