"The Escape"

Visit "The Escape" on MotoLyrics.com

This is the source of my life
Narrow-minded
Climbing the walls, I am blind
I'm in control
I can't let go
Feelings of doubt, Oh No!

I never thought I would bend up here
Lost in myself with all my fears

I could have left it all for you
And now I find myself escaping with my heart

All alone I go
I leave my sorrows
Falling from my own
Find your way into my soul

What have I done to feel this way
Where'd it all go wrong, can someone say?

I should have listened to your words
Instead, I find myself escaping with my heart

All alone I go
I leave my sorrows
Falling from my own
Find your way into my soul
