Feels like it's over
When all the beauty fades away
Seems like
Were getting older
Where did we turn, We're laid astray

What is done
It's gone forever
Forever

I, I hold the answer
To a long forgotten world (The way it's meant to be)
You, you are the one
Who holds the world from falling

We've had forever
Seems like forever's not enough
It's time to
Look through the mirror
And tell us where we're mean to go

What is done
It's gone forever
I've had enough

I, I hold the answer
To a long forgotten world (The way it's meant to be)
You, you are the one
Who holds the world from falling

Whoooooa
(I, I hold the answer to a long forgotten world)
Forgotten world
You, you are the one
Who holds the world from falling

I, whoooooa
(I hold the answer to a long forgotten world)
The way it's meant to be
(You are the one who holds the world from falling)
