Take me away, lead me further
Don't want to stay
No, no
Sailing ahead to my homeland
Out of this world

So now I see, and I don't know what all this became
And now I know, it's not what it is

Send me away out of this torture
Out of this place
Oh, oh
On to the gate that shines forever, heading away

So now I see...

I leave for more
Out of this wasteland I'll go
I leave for more
Inot a sacred world I'll fly

Heading away, awaiting fruition
Fearless of all
Oh, oh
Over the seas, Cruising the surface
Sailing ahead

So now I see...

I leave for more...
