"World Of Nothingness"

Hear this boy with tears in his eye
He tells you a story of a world
Created by mankind

Screams, as the world is strangling him
Can't you see this world drown him
(Chokes for air) Stained by agony
Scream, you know this story
Reflected his memories
It will haunt your soul

Reviled and rejected by his own
So sad inside
Cries and he's fading away
From the face of nothingness

Behind these tears he cries
Behind the eyes of an angel

Screams, as the world is strangling him
Can't you see this world drown him
(Chokes for air) stained by agony
Scream, you know this story
Reflected his memories
It will haunt your soul
