You think you know it all,
I see it in the way you're speaking.
The long words that you use,
Are starting to get irritating,
I've got the urge to knock you out,
And i can't handle this.
The ladder outside your bedroom window
Really takes the piss

Step back take a look where you're at,
You're just a raving Dawson's maniac...

You think that you know everything
Take one step back and look at yourself
I think you dont know anything
All my friends think that youre such a freak
And your just a Dawson's geek
Dawson's Dawson's geek

Why cant you see that you dont look like him in anyway
At least that kid has friends and thats alot more than you can say youve lost your mind and i dont think that you know who you are Naming you dog 'Pacey' was taking things a little too far step back take a look at where youre at youre just a raving Dawson's maniac...

You think that you know everything
Take one step back and look at yourself
I think you dont know anything
All my friends think that youre such a freak
And your just a Dawson's geek
Dawson's Dawson's geek

I guess I'll have to wait for your life to be over,
I guess I'll have to wait,
I guess I'll have to wait...

Oi!Oi!

I think you dont know anything
All my friends think that youre such a freak
And your just a Dawson's geek.

You think that you know everything
Take one step back and look at yourself
I think you dont know anything
All my friends think that youre such a freak
And your just a Dawson's geek
Dawson's Dawson's geek
