BB: I am one big walking chemical reaction

CH: A buzzing hive of cell synapsis and nacent self perception

BB: Isn't it disdainful and curious

CH: That both of us think we know everything

BB:

We both have brains,

We both have eyes

(Neither of us can see)

We both have brains,

We both have eyes

(Neither of us can see)

One in the same, two of a kind

And neither of us can see

CH: I am just a blinking, neon roadside attraction

BB: I sow future wrinkles and I'm told I'm untapped potential

CH: Isn't it disdainful and curious

BB: That both of us think we know everything

BB:

We both have brains,

We both have eyes

(Neither of us can see)

We both have brains,

We both have eyes

(Neither of us can see)

One in the same, two of a kind

And neither of us can see

BB: I am one big, fleeting errant contradiction

CH: It's so good to meet you

BB&CH;: We are one in the same

BB: Isn't it disdainful and curious

CH: That both of us think we know everything

BB:

We both have pains,
We both have eyes
(Neither of us can see)
We both have pains,
We both have eyes
(Neither of us can see)
One in the same, two of a kind
And neither of us can see
