Dodo do do dodo do €!

we've got so many issues of that not-to-be-solved-kind and we've got all the same old problems that you refuse to talk about I do not care how you got here and I do not care when you leave I just wanna stay clean and sane and sober as I try to hang on to my believes

I'm gonna wanna walk away tonight everything I ever do is for you so it just don't feel right that every time we've made up you just put up another fight that every night I cry myself to sleep I'm never gonna heal you cut too deep I will walk tonight

Dodo do dodo do €!

we've repeated all the same fights more or less a thousand times you keep telling me the same lies working later every night I do not care where you are going and I do not care who she is I just wanna stay clean and sane and sober though it is a little harder than it seems

I'm gonna wanna walk away tonight €!

all the times I've done you wrong make sure you count them that way you won't regret it when I'm gone all the flaws I have make sure you've found them they are gonna keep you warm

I'm gonna wanna walk away tonight €!
