[Lyrics: Francis, Moyses/Music:Francis]

Bowing down to an angel cast out by god

Worshipping a deceitful enemy

Who's laughing at their pride in following him

Considering everyone to be merely human pigs

Under his cunning and evil eyes

[Chorus:]

A multitude is in total chaos

Knowing not the deceived ones that they are

Asking for power, richness and desire

The price that they must pay

Is their souls thrown into a cauldron of fire

By being weak and blind

The fools disrespect the christian houses of god

They are the opposite of all that is holy

Locked in cages of sins

How can they reject the creator of all living things

The almighty god hears the prayers from holy priests

And christians alike, forgiveness for them is at hand

But curses shall fall upon those that refuse to repent

[Lead, Lead]

God's only begotten son was scourged, mocked and put

To death and resurrected on the third day

Proved his powers to demonstrate

How goodness always prevails

Followers of damnation march on in their darkest ways

Falling to see and admit the truth tha christ left for us today

[Repeat chorus]
