I, I've got it all together
Cause I want someone here forever
Cause you, you make me feel so right
When I hold you near
I only get what she feels

Wont you tell me somethin
Whos gonna give me lovin
All I want is one thing
And I need your lovin
It seems that I wont get much closer
My dreams are pushed off like a feather
Cause she, she's the only thing that's real
If I can survive
I will redeem in her eyes

I, I've got it all together
Cause I want someone here forever
Cause she, she's the only thing that's real
If I can survive I will redeem in her eyes
