

Indecision "Cowards"

Visit "Cowards" on MotoLyrics.com

Selfishness fuels the need
To satisfy their greed
Rape and take this flesh
Take them for what they're worth

Eye for an eye in punishment for their sins
And now I act in defense of the defenseless
Cowards, human liberation for the dying civilization

Selfishness fuels the need
To satisfy their greed
Animal liberation for the dying civilization
Cowards lead this genocide

Innocent life objectified
Unseen they suffer, unheard they cry
In loneliness they linger
In agony they die
