we'll all suffer for what we've done we pay no mind but we're all guilty we were created and will be taken away just the same and we'll beg and plead and wish and fade away NO HEAVEN NO HELL NO HERE NO NOW false sense fooled by society we've been deceived betrayed once again
I have taken part and for that I am at fault I've lent a hand in destroying humanity we'll be judged we'll be punished we'll take responsibility once and for all
