You want me to trust
Is that why there's blood on the floor
Is this meant for us
Drawing my name in the dust
Closing the door left open

Smile like you own the rain
Then tell it to flood
The people of pain
Until we're all the same
Then give me some clutch
Squeeze the last drop of your touch
You're tired and sold
Shiver from cold drops of love
So why do I trust
I could care less about you and your

I need you don't alone
This means you won't alone
