"The Wounded"

Visit "The Wounded" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm hearing us nearing
What you're feeling is
Mirrors pulling blind
Our thoughts keep what we need
Inside the slide shows of our lives
We warned you all embrace the fall
Without assistance from the wall

We live in the weak and the wounded
We arrived thinking life
Was just the color in our eyes
Keep staring keep glaring
They're tearing with eternal lies
We warned you all embrace the fall
Without assistance from the wall

One day you'll see again
One day you'll live again
