Bonus Track by: India Arie

I've achieved so much in life
But I'm an amateur in love
My bank account is doing just fine
But my emotions are bankrupt
My body is nice and strong
But my heart is in a million pieces
When the sun is shining so am I
But when night falls so do my tears

Sometimes the pain is so loud in my heart
That I can barely tell the voices apart
Sometimes the fear is so loud in my head
That I can barely hear what God says

But then I hear a whisper that this too shall pass
I hear the angel's whisper that this too shall pass
My ancestors whisper that this day will one day be the past
So I walk in faith that this too shall pass

The one that loved me the most
Turned around and hurt me the worst
I'm doing my best to move on
But the pain just keeps singing me these songs

My head and my heart are at war
Cause love ain't happening the way I want it
Feel like I am about to breakdown
Can't hear the light at the end of the tunnel

That's when I pray for healing in my heart
To be put back together what is torn apart
And I pray for quiet in my head
That I can hear clearly what God says

Then I hear a whisper that this too shall pass
I hear the angel's whisper that this too shall pass
My ancestors whisper that this day will one day be the
past

So I walk in faith that this too shall pass

All of a sudden I realize
That it only hurts worse to fight it
So I embrace my shadow
And hold on till the morning light

This too shall pass
This too shall pass
This too shall pass
This too shall pass
This too shall pass
This too shall pass
This too shall pass
This too shall pass

I hear my angels whisper that trouble don't have to last always
I hear my angels whisper
Even the day after tomorrow will one day be as today
I hear my angels whisper
I hear my angels whisper this too shall pass.
