You're like a cool breeze on a summer's day
(You're always in my head)
Ooohh
(You're always in my head)

You're like a cool breeze on a summer's day
You are a river running through the desert plain
You are my shelter from the pouring rain
You were my comfort even before the pain

I can hear the sound of five drummers in the wind
The leaves blowing in the breeze ring out like guitars
A tin can rolls across the gravel like a tambourine
I am but a vessel and so I sing
Because you are
In my head (you're always in my head)
In my dreams (you're always in my head)
In my pain (you're always in my head)
In my peace (you're always in my head)

A rainbow of rhythm stretches across the sky
An airplane in the distance plays a beautiful cello line
It's no coincidence it's in tune with the music in my ears
If you were a shoulder you're where I would rest, but I am your vessel
So I hear you

In my head (you're always in my head)
In my fears (you're always in my head)
In my joy, ohhh (you're always in my head)
In my tears (you're always in my head)
You're always in my head

You're like a cool breeze on a summer's day
You are a river running through a desert plain
You've been my shelter from the pouring rain
You were my comfort even before the pain
Cause I hear you

In my head (you're always in my head)
In my dreams (you're always in my head)
In my pain (you're always in my head)

In my peace (you're always in my head)
You're always in my head
In my head

In my head (you're always in my head)
In my fears (you're always in my head)
In my joy (you're always in my head)
In my tears (you're always in my head)
How could I live a day without you
How could I live one day without you
How could I live a day without music
You're always in my head
Ohhhhh
You are, you are love
You are, you are life
You are, you are joy
You are, you are peace
I am, you are me
Ohhhhh
You're always in my head
In my head
In my head
