If we make each other happy then we just can't lose

I don't mean to be decadent, I might sound like a hedonist

But the simplest way I can put it you become a habit
The more I consume, the more I gotta have it

Ain't no such thing as too much
If you gave me everything it'd never be enough, yeah
My black coffee with sugar, no cream in the morning
You're my super double caffeine dream, yeah

Your precious darkness got me so strung out
And lovin' the way that you got me so wide open, my baby doll
Jonesin' and fienin' under my skin
My nerves are screamin' when you're not here
See baby, I need ya, sugar you're so delicious

There is somethin' about your love
That makes me just wanna open up
Your flavor is the sweetest thing in life
I'm addicted to your chocolate high

'Cause I want you and I know that you want me
So let's stay close like we supposed to be
And just get high off our own supply
I'm addicted to your chocolate high

I be trippin' in so many ways
If I go a single day without a taste of your love
The finest cuisine of today's world
Five stars, oh you're so gourmet girl

I crave you, I want you
Every cell in my body needs you
Tasty like Hershey's and Nestle
You're rich like Godiva, boy you just so sexy

There is somethin' about your love
That makes me just wanna open up
Your flavor is the sweetest thing in life

I'm addicted to your chocolate high

'Cause I want you and I know that you want me
So let's stay close like we supposed to be
And just get high off our own supply
I'm addicted to your chocolate high

Your flavor is to me the sweetest thing in life
And I don't ever wanna come down
I'm addicted to your chocolate high, oh

Your flavor is to me the sweetest thing in life
And I don't ever wanna come down
I'm addicted to your chocolate high, oh yeah

There is somethin' about your love
That makes me just wanna open up
Your flavor is the sweetest thing in life
I'm addicted to your chocolate high

'Cause I want you and I know that you want me
So let's stay close like we supposed to be
And just get high off our own supply
I'm addicted to your chocolate high

There is somethin' about your love
That makes me just wanna open up
Your flavor is the sweetest thing in life
I'm addicted to your chocolate high

'Cause I want you and I know that you want me
So let's stay close like we supposed to be
And just get high off our own supply
I'm addicted to your chocolate high

There is somethin' about your love
That makes me just wanna open up
Your flavor is the sweetest thing in life
I'm addicted to your chocolate high

I want you and I know that you want me
So let's stay close like we supposed to be
And just get high off our own supply
I'm addicted to your chocolate high

Let's stay close like we supposed to be
If we make each other happy then we just can't lose
If we make each other happy then we just can't lose
If we make each other happy then we just can't lose
If we make each other happy then we just can't lose
