Close your eyes, the physical can be so blind
In my eyes, the innocent can be so wise
It's not about black or white, this is wrong or right Can you take a stranger and treat him like your brother?

Love don't start with the eyes, it starts with the heart
Look deep down inside, in all that you have a chance
To make a choice, to make a change
So make the choice to look with the eyes of your heart

Close your eyes, the light of love will lead the way
In the eyes of a child, we're all the same
If we're all God's children, the logic is so simple
The one you call stranger is really your brother

Love don't start with the eyes, it starts with the heart, yeah
Look deep down inside, in all that you have a chance
To make a choice, to make a change
So make the choice to look with the eyes of your heart

No, I don't mean to preach, some may say that it's unrealistic
'Cause none of us is perfect, but the way that I say it
What do you just try to see with different eyes
Could you see that what is done to you is done to me?
We want humanity, yeah

Oh, love don't start with the eyes, it starts with the heart
Look deep down inside, in all that you have a chance
To make a choice, to make a change
So make the choice to look with the eyes of

Love don't start with the eyes, it starts with the heart
Look deep down inside you have the chance
To make a choice, to make a change
So take the chance

To make a choice, to make a change
So make the choice to look with the eyes of your heart
