Fare thee well my bright star
I watched your taillights blaze into nothingness
But you were long gone before I ever got to you Before you blazed past this address

And now I think of having loved and having lost
You never know what it's like to never love Who can say what's better and my heart's become the cost?
A mere token of a brighter jewel sent from above

Fare thee well my bright star
The vanity of youth the color of your eyes
And maybe if I'd fanned the blazing fire of your day-today
Or if I'd been older I'd been wise

But too thick the heat of those long summer evenings
For a cool evening I began to yearn

But you could only feed upon the things which feed a fire
Waiting to see if I would burn

Fare thee well my bright star
It was a brief brilliant miracle dive
That which I looked up to and I clung to for dear life
Had to burn itself up just to make itself alive

And I caught you then in your moment of glory
Your last dramatic scene against a night sky stage
With a memory so clear that it's as if you're still before me
My once in a lifetime star of an age

So fare thee well my bright star
Last night the tongues of fire circled me around
And this strange season of pain will come to pass
When the healing hands of autumn cool me down
