"Please Call Me, Baby" is an Emily Saliers song - I know very little about it, but the one tape I have of it sounds like it's from around 1987. That's about all I can tell you.

Please Call Me, Baby

Well, evening fell just like a star

Left a trail across the sky

You spit as you walked out the door

If this is love we're crazy

As we fight like cats and dogs

I just know there's got to be more

So please call me, baby

Wherever you are

It's too cold to be out walking the streets

We do crazy things when we're wounded

Everyone's a bit insane

I don't want you catching your death of cold

Walking in the rain

I'll admit I ain't no angel

I admit I ain't no saint

I'm selfish and cold but you're blind

If I exercise my devils

Well, my angels may leave too

And they're so hard to find

So please call me, baby

Wherever you are

It's too cold to be out walking the streets

We do crazy things when we're wounded

Everyone's a bit insane

I don't want you catching your death of cold

Walking in the rain

We're always at each other's throats

You know it drives me up the wall

Most of the time blowin' off steam

I wish to hell you'd leave me

I wish to God you'd stay

Life's so different in a dream

So please call me, baby

Wherever you are

It's too cold to be out walking the streets

We do crazy things when we're wounded
Everyone's a bit insane
I don't want you catching your death of cold
Walking in the rain
I don't want you catching your death of cold
Out walking in the rain.
