When I let you go
I cursed myself with empty hands
Strong enough to watch you walk
Not enough to understand
With spiteful eyes you burn for my grace
Was trying to stand out side of this
You were trying to save face

You can say that I don't care, I don't care
You can hope that we still
Have something left to share
But just between you baby and me
Just between me baby and you
There's nothing there

I finally found someone I can hold
You ask me to defend myself
If I shouldn't be so bold well
Get that look off of your face
I don't have the time, you don't have the place

To say that I don't care, I don't care
To hope that we still
Have something left to share
And just between me baby and you
Just between you baby and me
There's nothing there

Baby what are you gonna do
I can't salvage any truth from you
Everybody else already knows
Hurts you to realize, so leave well enough
Enough alone

And you don't need my hands
To help you understand
You don't need to hear my voice
You have no choice
So don't be throwing stones
The closer we get
The harder they come

Now even if your feeling alone
Don't come home
'Cause when it was up to you
When it was up to you
You left it up to me

Oh you left it up to me
When it was up to you
You left it up to me
