Atlantic swellin up
Crash on the sand like a super-nova Fillin up my heart the cup
Never stopping, running over
So many cities crushed together
I-95 and a coastal tether
New Orleans up to Boston we got everything that's awesome
Think I'll stay
I never knew the way
But what can I say - this shit's okay
& family led me to this place
Like a dead man I vanish with no trace
East coast mantle protection policy
We take care of each other
'Cause that's our way
Am I wrong or am I right -
Atlantic wins tha fight tonite
Hard core, rugged and raw

In tha streets of NY we still be workin above tha fuckin law
Anyone who says the east it least
Obviously has not met the beast
We don't give a fuck about Californication
Vertical seaboard up and down
I think it's clear who wears the crown
East coast mantle protection policy
We stick together cause that's our way
Even if the world stands against us in the end
We've got everything it takes to stand and defend
All hail to the East Coast Allies
EAST COAST HAIL!
All hail to the land of the sunrise
NOT FOR SALE!
