Burned out buildings
Riots in tha streets
Peace is broken at the fault of police
CROWDS SWELL
Cars explode
TENSIONS ARISE
Clips unload
Coming through the tear gas with a flare
Rag 'round my face and my fist in the air
Are we the only ones alive?
Renegades in a hail of suicide
Have I been sleeping all these years?
Fighting the dead in the dying years
TRYING TO GET UP, AND TO THE STRIKE
THE ONLY TRUTH THERE'S A GUN IN MY HAND
They'll never take us; the renegade batch
Last one out throws the match
