Anywhere, anyhow anyone love
Gonna take me higher and higher above.
Anywhere, anyhow anyone love
Gonna take me higher and higher above.
Anywhere, anyhow.
Anywhere, anyhow.

Anywhere

You came home so late last night
I knew there's something mysterious
I was begging you to tell the truth
You promised me to be serious
Now I'm gone and I'm confident
I know what I'm gonna do

But I fear when I see you again
I fall in love with you

I thought like I was down to you
And you're treating me like the stranger
In the nights I life
I was driving strain into danger
In my mind I see your face.
It feels like something new
I just know when you're near me again
I fall in love with you
