They're behind me,
And beside me,
All around me all the time...
Never leave me,
Always haunt me,
They are always catching up...

And when I'm looking back I see,
All the shit you've done to me
All this faces full of fear,
Are always looking at me.
And I have nowhere to hide!

I know it's not just in my mind,
'Cause I can see them all the time.
There's not another place,
I want to be right now.
'Cause these are the voices in my mind!

The only thing that surrounds me,
Are this white plain walls.
The only thing I can hear,
Is the sound of silence.
Now I feel like I'm tied up in chains,
And this darkness is taking my soul!

And when I'm looking back I see,
All the shit you've done to me
All this faces full of fear,
Are always looking at me.
And I have nowhere to hide!

I know it's not just in my mind,
'Cause I can see them all the time.
There's not another place,

I want to be right now.
'Cause these are the voices in my mind!

He's coming to town and searching around,
For the ghosts but he can't find them yet.
He's coming to town and searching around,

For the ghosts but he can't find them yet.
He's coming to town and searching around,
For the ghosts but he can't find them yet.
He's coming to town and searching around,
For the ghosts but he can't find them yet.
Just Get Out! Just Get Out!

And now I know all this is true,
And they're going to get me soon.
And all my fears are haunting me,
And I have nowhere to hide!

I know it's not just in my mind,
'Cause I can see them all the time.
There's not another place,
I want to be right now.
'Cause these are the voices in my mind!

I know it's not just in my mind,
'Cause I can see them all the time.
There's not another place,
I want to be right now.
'Cause these are the voices in my mind!
