Verse 1

I know what people say
I drink a lot almost every day
And I'm feelin' a little too tired
I'm a moth flying too close to the fire

My body needs more care
I might use a little fresh air
And it hurts me but my baby cries
If I don't change I think I'm gonna die

Chorus

Well, well what have we here
Another night full of tears
And I a'int worried, don't you fear
Cause I think that the clouds are going to clear

(solos)

Verse 2

And I hold on a little too tight
And each day is a pretty good fight
But it'll ease up if you let it
Wake up your mind if you want to get it

Chorus

Well, well what have we here
Another night full of tears
And I a'int worried, don't you fear
Cause I think that the clouds are going to clear

Bridge

Well it seems like these walls are gettin' tall
And I feel them closin' in
All the pain that I feel, all the blues that I see
Are because of me

(solos)

Verse 3

Is there something always wrong?
Sleepless nights, same old song

Just let go, let your mind run free
With your eyes closed, it's really hard to see

Chorus

Well, well what have we here
Another night full of tears
And I a'int worried, don't you fear
Cause I think that the clouds are going to clear

Well, well what have we here
Another night full of tears
And I a'int worried, don't you fear
Cause I think that the clouds are going to clear
