I didn't see it-no I didn't hear it I was just trying to Remember all the things I'll never know Well I was walking along-and I'm trying to stay strong-but It's always so hard because something's going wrondbut
I try to remember all the things I'll never know
And then it crashes on down without a warning there's a sound
And the next thing I know is I'm flying off the ground
I try to remember all the things I'll never know If you could hear mt heart-it'd sound something like this Not from my memory-what do you want from me Spinning through the ages left laughing at the dazes left me nothing that I want nor I need My pain is running plenty, my anger's nearly spent me getting harder from the suffering

You crash my world and you're going down, run away and I'll hunt you down Start me up and that's the way it gonna be I gotta rule my world I'm gonna be my king I got it all set up I'm gonna be that everything

Ssh! now listen up... my heart's got something else to say!
Out of my memory... that's all that's left of me

I'm tired of your lying, have no more of your denying... never want the future to turn to that past

Thoughts annihilated-you're mentally constipated to disturb, it from the things that don't last

I'm gonna be my king
Ripping apart at the mind Ripping apart at the mind-you mentally try to slay me Ripping apart at the mind-why you trying to do me Ripping apart at the mind-why a king couldn't save me when you mentally slay me

A simplistic introduction to a complex destruction from the friction that they're sponsoring Unable to delete the memories incomplete cause the hope and joy they're conquering It's spiritually uncleansing-the nightmare's never-ending now you're striking the proverbial kill But you underestimated how highly agitated was my purpose and my power and will

Can't nobody stop me can't nobody stop me
I'm gonna be my king
I didn't see it, no I didn't hear it I was just trying to remember all the things I'll never know
