Fading away from here
[2x] I'm fading away from here

[Shouting] We're fading away from here.

I'm fading away from here, can't seem I begin.
Even though I'm awake, my body slowly breaks.
Feels so cold that I shake, every time I reflect.
These stories I'm writing to verse they sure do serve my thirst.
Seems to clear my head, when I'm awake at night.
I pull myself so tight, lying in the dark.
Feeling rich with words,
I'm about to draw my thoughts, re planning out my chorus.
I'll start it all from scratch.

Take me away, shattered my hopes today.
Nothing can be done I see,
Oh it ends so tragically for me.

Take me away....
