Conceive me a hell in which i shall burn for all time for my crimes
I wear the mark of true defiance in what is holy and pure to god
I wear the mark of misery imposed onto the greatness of evil
I am he that shelters nothing
I am he that will not bow down
I'm the one agianst the strength above
And i will test all men righteous
Falsity makes men lie, minds die
I will not perish
This is my oath

I'll be honored to burn for my hatred for god
See this face and those near Testify of hell's will
I crawl to no lord and seek no solace
Comfort comes from hate for the skies above
No flames can harm me still
I wear the mark of what profound evil does mean
Search heaven, you won't find such truth
That you will see what i believe
Salvation through infinite suffering
My salvation
