What is there to prove with your racist shit?
Since the war started there's been thousands dead.
Bodies squandered all over the floor
His daddy's done it once, we've seen it all before.

Keep on fighting, Keep on dying
For their fucking game.

Drop Bush not Bombs!

Barely nineteen, takes his final breath
Struck by a bullet, soon he'll be dead
Pride in this country that he fucking had
Now he goes home in a body bag.

Keep on fighting, Keep on dying
For their fucking game.

Drop Bush not Bombs!

Thousands die every fucking day
Humans are expandable, that's the American way.
Our country is guilty for causing all the pain
It's not only a war but the Bush family game.

What is there to prove with your racist shit?
Since the war started there's been thousands dead.
Bodies squandered all over the floor
His daddy's done it once, we've seen it all before.

Keep on fighting, Keep on dying
For their fucking game.

Drop Bush not Bombs!
